

Guy L. Snyder, RRT, MHA, CFAAMA
Diplomate in Healthcare Administration
Director of Education
American Academy of Medical Administrators

Guy is a long-time member of the American Academy of Medical Administrators (AAMA). Over the years, he has served in a number of volunteer leadership positions including chairing the CAAMA Committee and serving as an AAMA board member. In May of 2008, Guy joined the staff of the AAMA as the Director of Education.

Guy has earned an Associates of Applied Science degree in Respiratory Therapy from Parkland College, Champaign, Illinois; a Bachelors of Science in Vocational and Technical Education (Health Occupations) from the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois; a Masters in Healthcare Administration from Baylor University, Waco, Texas; and is currently a Doctoral Student studying Human Resources Education at the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois.

Guy served for twenty-two years with the United States Coast Guard. Among many positions, he managed a medical and dental clinic in Alaska, was the Coast Guard staff member on the Defense Medical Oversight Committee at the Pentagon and served as the Chief of Medical Administration for the Coast Guard. He is a frequent guest lecturer at the University of Illinois and was a faculty member there for four years prior to assuming his current position. Courses taught included, Healthcare Planning, Consumer Health, Drug Use and Abuse, Terrorism, Disaster, Health, Anatomy, and Physiology.