

Renee Mazeroll, RN, MSN

Renee Mazeroll is the Executive Director of Cardiac, Pulmonary & Vascular Services at St. Joseph Hospital (SJH). Renee joined St. Joseph's in June of 2004 bringing over 25 years of operational and programmatic experience. Renee is the 2007 recipient of the GE Healthcare Award for Excellence awarded by the American College of Cardiovascular Administrators. In addition to Invasive and Noninvasive cardiology, Renee is responsible for Interventional Radiology, the Cardiac Cath Lab, the Vascular Institute, the Women's Heart Center, the inpatient Vascular Lab, Respiratory Therapy, Cardiac Rehab, the Adult Congenital Heart Disease program, the Heart Failure Clinic and the Pacemaker Clinic. The WHC at SJH received best practice recognition by SG2 in 2006 and was featured in the CV Roundtable, Advisory Board conference in January of 2006. Previously, Renee functioned as the manager of the Cardiac, Vascular and Transplant Programs at Sharp Memorial Hospital (SMH) in San Diego, CA. While there, Renee gave multiple presentations specific to best practice for the American Heart Association and Lumetra. Renee was responsible for SMH receiving the performance achievement award from the American Heart Association and SMH being ranked number one for CABG in San Diego County.